Skills for life

The 'How to kiss' got your attention, right? But there are so many other things in life you have to know too. This laugh-out-loud handbook tackles some of the big ones — how to get a job, find a flat, have a party — and some of the smaller, but still important, issues — how to change a tyre, barbecue, breathe. Whether you are starting out in life, have lost your way, or are just clueless, The Guide will give you the confidence to take a huge stride into the great big world and a push towards achieving your dreams. Read this book and you will be armed with enough knowledge to avoid the top 100 future-wrecking errors that can be made, big and small.

The Guide is packed full of both practical advice (it tells you how to do stuff) and wide ranging topics on life issues (it helps you understand stuff). But the best thing about this book is: it's funny. It doesn't sound like your mum, dad or Mrs Thompson next door. It points you in the right direction, but it's happy to let you make your own decisions. So grab The Guide, get your st together, and go for it!
